Enjoy
nature

Menorca, very different from its big sister Mallorca, enchants with its tranquillity and unspoilt nature. Beautiful bays with white sandy beaches and turquoise coloured water, picturesque fishing villages and a hilly green hinterland make the island a paradise for pleasure hikers. Together with your local guide, you will walk along the island's most beautiful paths and trails. Relaxation and swimming breaks are taken at pictureperfect beaches, sometimes with a picnic. In small fishing villages, you will enjoy typical local cuisine in family-run restaurants and finish off with a cheese tasting with local wine - the "Queso Mahon" is famous throughout Spain.

This trip includes five easy to moderately difficult hikes of up to eleven kilometres on paved, sandy or rocky paths and trails. With a normal level of fitness, these are easy to master as there are frequent breaks.
